Mr. Goldberg's practice is focused on representation of physicians and physician organizations including medical practices, professional associations, and physician investors in a wide range of health care ventures, in addition to providing services to businesses outside the health care sector.

Mr. Goldberg serves as General Counsel to most of his clients, acting as the primary contact for all legal matters and providing comprehensive legal services. Mr. Goldberg's clients include medical groups, health plans, medical professional liability insurers, professional associations, as well as other organizations involved in the provision of health care services. He counsels medical groups and individual physicians on compliance with California and federal self-referral and anti-kickback laws as well as payer and facility contracting issues, medical practice consolidations and other various compliance matters. In the regulatory field, he handles Knox-Keene Act and Department of Insurance licensing and compliance. He also advises numerous nonprofit organizations regarding tax exemption and related matters.

Mr. Goldberg has authored a number of articles in medical association publications and has spoken at The American Academy of Ophthalmologists, The California Society of Anesthesiologists, and California Medical Association programs on medical practice compliance issues. He has also edited articles for the California Medical Association's California Physicians Legal Handbook for a number of years.
