PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HASSARD BONNINGTON LLP, San Francisco, CA
Partner, 2006-Present; Associate, 1997-2006

Mr. Willoughby is an experienced trial attorney who, since joining Hassard Bonnington in 1997, has dedicated his legal career to the representation of health care providers in a variety of contexts, primarily the defense of medical negligence lawsuits alleging catastrophic injuries or alleged wrongful death. Mr. Willoughby is also very experienced in handling matters before the California Medical Board and California Nursing Board, premises liability claims and hospital staff issues.

A native San Franciscan, Mr. Willoughby moved to Marin County with his family at the age of 7. While in the 8th grade at Ross School, he won several national awards and commendations for rescuing two elderly residents from a burning home near the school. After graduating high school from The Branson School, Mr. Willoughby attended the University of California Berkeley, where he double majored in Political Science and Mass Communications.

The son of a respected journalist and press secretary, Mr. Willoughby initially worked in local and national politics for four years before deciding to attend the University of San Francisco School of Law. While at USF Law, he won a Best Oral Argument award and served as a Judicial Extern to Justice Timothy A. Reardon at the California Court of Appeal.

Since joining Hassard Bonnington out of law school in 1997, Mr. Willoughby has always considered it a great honor and privilege to represent the Bay Area's finest medical providers. He has been a partner of the firm since 2006.
